To All Utah Contract Security Licensees:

A change to the General Rules of the Utah Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing (Title R156-1-308a) changed the expiration date of all Utah contract security licenses from July 31 of each even-numbered year to November 30 of each even-numbered year (2006, 2008, etc).

Therefore, any active contract security license, as of July 31, 2006, will be automatically extended an additional four months to November 30, 2006.

DOPL will not send out new license certificates reflecting the extended expiration date.

Instead, this letter serves as official documentation of the extension and must be kept with your blue license certificate. It is also recommended that a copy of this letter be given to your employer(s). Additional copies of this letter are available at www.dopl.utah.gov. (Look under "DOPL News" in the bottom right corner.)

CONTINUING EDUCATION: Please be aware that the continuing education cycle for contract security also changed to coincide with the new renewal cycle. Therefore, for the current cycle only, licensees have an additional four months to obtain the required 16 hours of formal classroom education or practical experience. Armed security officers must also continue to complete a minimum of 4 hours of firearms training every six months, in compliance with the provisions of Public Law 103-54, the Armored Car Industry Reciprocity Act of 1993. The next cycle will run from December 1, 2006, to November 30, 2008, and every two years thereafter.

Renewal notices will be mailed to each licensee's address of record in September 2006. Questions regarding this extension may be directed to DOPL at 801-530-6628 or 866-275-3675 (toll-free in Utah).

Sincerely,

J. Craig Jackson
